Consultants meeting

Tie-down meeting
(November 5-7, 2014)
Participants

- 12 participants, from
  - France
  - Germany
  - USA
  - Japan
  - WNTI
  - TCSC
Summary of the meeting held on 5th - 7th November 2014

The working group works on SSG-26, Appendix IV dedicated to stowage and retention system

- Simplification
- Clarification of the methods of assessment
- Identification of consensual load factors

Approaches of different countries were compared; a lot of points of agreement were identified.

- Acceptance criteria

A few differences in practices were identified, they are still under discussion.

- Load factors
- Safety factors
- Methods of assessment
Summary of the meeting held on 5th - 7th November 2014

- Review of SSG-26, appendix IV begun.
- So far, the introduction section has been reviewed with an excellent agreement of all participants.
- The working group proposes to add advisory material about the types of analyses to be performed to justify the design of the attachment points of the package (static and fatigue analysis).
Next meeting

📅 24th - 26th February 2015

- To finish the discussions about the identified differences.
- To be held in time to agree about a common proposal to the next review cycle.